PLANS ANNOUNCED FOR NEWSLETTER

Beginning this fall, a newsletter designed for the West Alabama community will be published by Shelton State Community College. The logo for the publication, THE COMMUNITY SCENE, was designed by Mr. Stringfellow and his drafting class at the Technical Division. The newsletter will be printed quarterly and will be mailed to area businesses, community leaders, schools, etc.

If you have any information on any programs or events of interest to the West Alabama community, please submit them to me in writing by October 1.

FALL CHILD CARE CONFERENCE SCHEDULED

On Saturday, September 24, Shelton State will hold its first Fall Child Care conference, designed as a quality workshop format meeting of people who work directly with preschool aged children of the West Alabama area. The conference is designed as a motivating meeting of area child care professionals.

Teachers, directors, high school and college instructors, students, parents, are all invited to attend. The free conference will consist of educational exhibits, group discussions, three workshop sessions, handouts of games, activities, songs, etc for children. Everyone attending will receive two books, one on infants and toddlers, and the other on preschool aged children.

For more information, contact Dr. Allen Mallory, 759-1716 or 349-3865

WRITING LAB SPORTS NEW LOOK

The writing lab has a new look! And the lab has expanded its hours to help students with any writing problems they might have. Students can come in to the lab for help in understanding their reading and writing in any field (not just English). Students can also receive help on a term paper in any subject from anthropology or zoology. Please check our poster in the library for the time most convenient to you.

FAIR QUEEN APPLICATIONS NOW BEING TAKEN

The Tuscaloosa Jaycees are now taking applications for the 1983 West Alabama State Fair Queen contest which will be held Monday, September 26, 1983. The contest is open to any female in the West Alabama area who is between the ages of 17 and 20 and has never been married. The contestants are judged on talent, beauty, poise and dress. The winner will receive a loving cup, $300, and will reign as queen for the year 1983-84 as a public relations ambassador for the West Alabama Fair.

Anyone interested in entering the contest should call the Tuscaloosa Jaycee office at 345-2051.

DON'T FORGET TO BUY YOUR TICKETS

Tickets are now on sale for the autographed football of the 1983 Crimson Tide that will be given away by the Shelton State Alumni Association on Saturday, October 22, as part of Shelton State Days at McFarland Mall. Tickets are only $1 and all proceeds will go the Alumni Scholarship Fund. Since this will be the first team coached by Ray Perkins, the football will become a collector's item. Tickets are available from any alumni member or from Betty Brown or Lucy Kubiszyn at the college.

TWO, FOUR, SIX, EIGHT, SHELTON HOPES TO EDUCATE

Don't forget the Academic Pep Rally scheduled for Monday, September 26, at 10 a.m. in the auditorium. Bessie German and the Talent Search committee have done an outstanding job in putting together a first class program. Dr. Judy Merritt, president of Jefferson State Junior College in Birmingham, will be the guest speaker. Classes will be dismissed for the hour.
